

say hello to expressions with all 3

There are many expressions in English which contain the term 'all'. Daily Expressions' Study Guide on the term all was developed to help you to learn some of the most important expressions with the term.

(British English) all over the shop everywhere, in every place or part, high and low

all over town everywhere, in all places, far and wide, throughout the length and breadth, there and everywhere

He had run all over town looking for his wife.

all over town
everyone is talking about it, on the grape vine, to be the current gossip

What you did is all over town. Everyone is talking about it.

all over with finished or at the end, to have run its course

Not only your parents but the school know the whole story. It's all over with.

(British English) all party all the political parties

He received all party support.

all pervasive everywhere, in all places, in every part, in every nook and cranny, high and low, at all points

The problem of race, religion and class is all pervasive.

all-points bulletin a radio message which is sent to all police forces concerning a crime suspect or a stolen vehicle all powerful having complete and total power, omnipotent, invincible say hello to expressions with all 3

There are many expressions in English which contain the term 'all'. Daily Expressions' Study Guide on the term all was developed to help you to learn some of the most important expressions with the term.

You may think that you're all powerful but you're not.

all-purpose

having a variety of uses, can be used in many different ways

I normally buy all-purpose flour so that I can use it to make pancakes and cakes.

all right to be not bad, mediocre, adequate or passable

I did all right. I'm just glad that I passed.

all right

okay

I'm all right, thank you. And you?

all right already enough, shut up, no more

All right already, I heard you.

all right with to be agreement with, okay, not have any disagreement with

It's all right with me if you want to destroy your life.

(British English) all round versatile, multifaceted, adapted, multipurpose

(British English) all-round

from every side, from every direction

(British English) all-round

in all respects

say hello to expressions with all 3

There are many expressions in English which contain the term 'all'. Daily Expressions' Study Guide on the term all was developed to help you to learn some of the most important expressions with the term.

(British English) all-round

in all respects

(British English) all-rounder a versatile person, especially in the area of cricket all said and done at the end or finished

After it was all said and done, they won and we lost.

All Saints' Day

Christian holy day celebrated on November 1 to celebrate persons who have died and have become saints

(British English) all-seater stadium which has no standing places all set prepared, ready, okay

It's all set so please stop worrying.

all set to prepared or ready to do something

I'm all set to give her what she needs to do.

all shook up anxious, distressed, disturbed, ill at ease

After what I heard, I'm all shook up.

(British English) all Sir Garnet

(dated military expression) well done

There are many expressions in English which contain the term 'all'. Daily Expressions' Study Guide on the term all was developed to help you to learn some of the most important expressions with the term.

all shot to hell to be completely destroyed, no longer useful, useless

The car is all shot to hell. You're going to have to buy a new one.

all shot up to be shot several times

No, he isn't dead. He's alive but he's all shot up.

all skin and bones too or very skinny, gaunt, emaciated, wasted

I don't like how she looks; she is all skin and bones.

All Soul's Day

Catholic holy day celebrated on November 2 to pray for the dead all spice

also known as pimento (dried unripe aromatic berries) all-star

a team or cast which contains only the best in the field of entertainment or sports

This is an all-star baseball team. Of course, it can win a gold.

all sweet and light

(usually used either in the negative or sarcastically) to be pleasant, innocent or easy-going

Just because we're not running around like maniac that doesn't mean that everything is all sweet and light.

all systems are go everything is set and prepared, everything is ready say hello to expressions with all 3

There are many expressions in English which contain the term 'all'. Daily Expressions' Study Guide on the term all was developed to help you to learn some of the most important expressions with the term.

All systems are go. We can start now.

all talk to talk but not act, be all mouth, not be able to back up one's words Ignore him! He is all talk but no action.

All talk-radio radio station which does not play music but have a two-way talk radio format (in the U.S. generally hosted by very conservative or neo-conservative jockies) all that attractive, hip, pretty, fantastic

She thinks that she's all that.

all that and a bag of chips, too to believe that oneself is fantastic, hip, pretty, attractive or the best thing going

She thinks that she is all that and a bag of chips, too.

All that glitters is not gold everything is not what it seems to be, outward appearance can be deceiving, appearances can be deceiving (interjection) All the best!

Good luck!

I hope that you love France and learn French. All the best!

all the better

it would be the best solution or way

If you could get your father to lend us his car, all the better. That way we would not have to take the train.

say hello to expressions with all 3

There are many expressions in English which contain the term 'all'. Daily Expressions' Study Guide on the term all was developed to help you to learn some of the most important expressions with the term.

(British English/ used ironically) all the fun of the fair great or big fun, having the best time ever all the same to not vary, to be equal, much the same or all one

It may be hard to believe but people everywhere are, basically and fundamentally, all the same.

all the time

constantly, continuously

All the time. In fact, there is not any time that she doesn't complain.

all the way from beginning to end

Whatever happens, happen. I'll be with you all the way.

all the way to have sexual intercourse

We've finally gone all the way. It was nice.

all the world and his wife every thing, all and sundry

all the world and his wife

(slang synonyms) everything including the kitchen sink all things being equal what is likely, probable or preferred if no other special facts are considered

All things being equal, I would rather live in Paris rather than in New York.